Resilient & Seamless Governance

Hybrid. 10-12 May 2022, Tallinn, ESTONIA

egovconference.ee

A hybrid conference with 1,000+ highly-interested e-governance specialists from all over the world are expected to attend online, with more than 300 participants on-site in Tallinn.

We inform, inspire, share ideas, and foster high-level connections with e-governance decision makers and strategists.

Hybrid Conference

The conference explores how to develop digital ecosystems that cope with crises and create digital services that help citizens to cope with them:

- What are the enablers of a resilient digital ecosystem that responds to crises?
- How to ensure digital data security and interoperability during crises?
- What does a seamless government, that meets the expectations of the citizens and businesses, look like?
- How do you create a world-class e-service, from complex online forms and verification, to amazing user experience?

Participants from more than 110 countries

- Governmental decision makers and strategists who are implementing national e-governance strategies.
- Donor organisations supporting the development of open, transparent, and efficient governance practices via IT solutions.
- The business community that is developing e-governance applications and assisting governments with implementation.

The Conference Introduction Seminar on May 12th is part of the programme and presents practical aspects of digital transformation.
